HSLI Newsletter

Volume 7 Number 4

December 1987

Dear HSLI Members:

It was good to see so many of you at the Fall Meeting at Rush. A great deal of gratitude is due to Trudy Gardner, Pat Grundke, and all those who worked with them to make this meeting a smooth success.

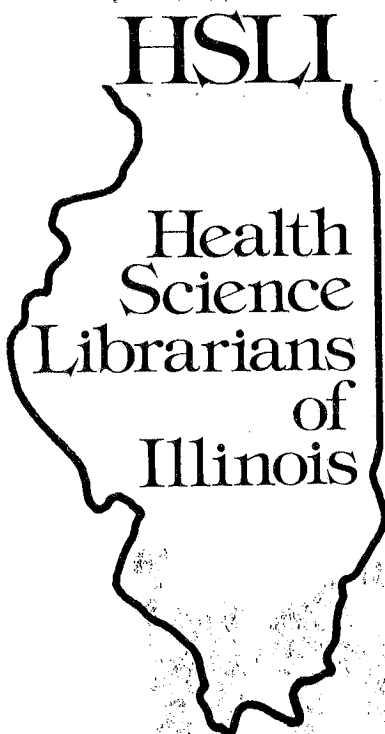

Much thanks is also due to the panel and reactor, who helped provide a lively discussion on Friday. The Medline Update was well-attended. Please don't hesitate to make suggestions to Dalia Kleinmuntz if you have ideas for continuing education subjects or for programs.

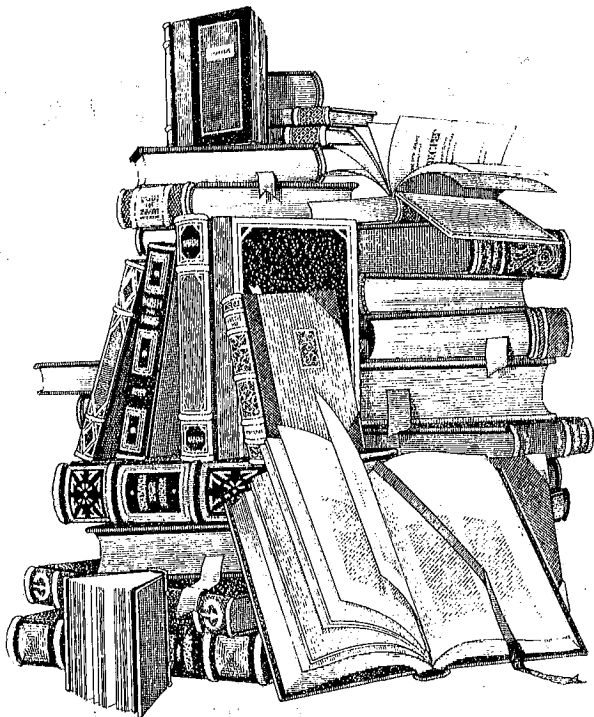

Now is the time to renew your HSLI personal membership.

We, of course, need your dues. But even more than that, we need to know whether or not you are still interested in being a member of HSLI. Please take a moment to send in the membership renewal form included in this newsletter if you have not already renewed your personal membership for 1988.

Thanks.

Walter R. Wilkins
President

COOPERATIVE COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM UNDERWAY

GMRMLN, the Greater Midwest Regional Medical Library Network, announces the implementation of its Coordinated Cooperative Collection Development Program.

The program's goals include an improvement in the characteristics of the regional collection in terms of quality, quantity, depth, and breadth; the optimization of the use of institutional monetary resources; and an increase in the Region's self-sufficiency by improving its regional ILL fill rate. These goals relate to the program's four components which are as follows:

1. resource analysis—a descriptive evaluation of collections in the Region using the Research Libraries Group Conspectus
2. resource development—identification of serial titles to be purchased and subject areas to be covered in order to either fill gaps or develop greater depth in the Region's collections; funds from NLM and other sources will be used to purchase these materials
3. resource retention—member commitments to retain particular serial titles or develop collections in specific subject areas in order to insure the continued regional availability of information resources
4. a regional collection development policy manual.

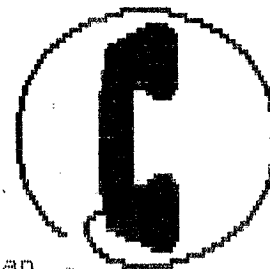

The resource analysis phase is currently underway with 22 Resource Libraries (mainly medical school libraries) and 21 Basic Health Science Libraries (mainly hospital libraries) conducting the RLG Conspectus. Conspectus data will be analyzed to identify collection strengths and gaps so that funds can be expended later this year and early next year for the cooperative acquisition of materials. Additional rounds of conspectus evaluation and cooperative acquisition will continue in subsequent years.

Libraries from Illinois currently participating in the program are: American Medical Association, Illini Hospital, National College of Chiropractic, Rush University, Wood Library-Museum of Anesthesiology, Southern Illinois University, American Dental Association, Northwestern University, University of Illinois at Chicago, The John Crerar Library, and Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine.

For additional information, contact the GMRMLN Management Office, which is located at the University of Illinois at Chicago, at 312-996-2464.

FAX IN THE GMRMLN

NLM NOTICE

On July 1, 1987 NLM began telefacsimile service for documents needed on an emergency basis. Interlibrary loan requests for this service will be accepted by telefacsimile (preferred) or telephone during all hours that NLM is open, including Saturdays. Every effort possible will be made to fill emergency requests within two hours. While NLM does not normally accept requests for materials held regionally, in the case of clinical emergencies this restriction is waived. Because it is more costly to transmit documents by telefacsimile there is a $3 surcharge for each document transmitted. This means the total charge for a document to a domestic requester through this service is $8. Requests received via telefacsimile without a notation that they are in support of clinical emergencies will be processed as regular interlibrary loans. The NLM Telefax machine is a Group III type. The number is 301/496-2809.

The 1987 GMRMLN FAX Directory, to be published in October 1987, will list over two hundred FAX sites. It will be available from the GMRMLN Management Office for $5.00. New sites that have been identified are:
